He set out on a journey to find the Red Caps and retrieve his treasure chest. Along the way, he met a wise old man who told him that the Red Caps had hidden the treasure chest in a secret cave.

The Wizard followed the old man's directions and found the cave. He was about to enter when he heard a group of Red Caps arguing inside.

"I want the gold!" one Red Cap said.

"No, I want the jewels!" another Red Cap said.

"We should divide it up evenly," a third Red Cap said.

The Wizard smiled. He knew that this was his chance to get his treasure back.

He entered the cave and confronted the Red Caps. The Red Caps were surprised to see him and they quickly dropped the treasure chest and ran away.

The Wizard picked up the treasure chest and opened it. Inside, he found all of his stolen treasures. He was overjoyed.

The Wizard returned to his castle and thanked the wise old man for his help. He then placed the treasure chest in a safe place and vowed never to let it be stolen again.
