

The Prince of Egypt Vocal Selections: Journey Through Epic Cinematic Soundscapes

Released in 1998, "The Prince of Egypt" captivated audiences worldwide with its dazzling animation, heartwarming story, and unforgettable soundtrack. The vocal selections album, released alongside the film, showcases the breathtaking musical arrangements that seamlessly blend traditional Egyptian melodies with Broadway-style grandeur.

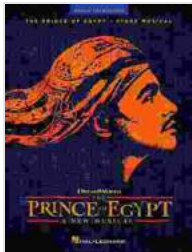

The Vocal Masterpiece: A Chorus of Stellar Performances

The soundtrack features an all-star lineup of vocalists, each bringing their unique artistry to the iconic songs.

- Amram and Yocheved (Michelle Pfeiffer and Steve Martin): The poignant "Deliver Us" echoes the parents' deep love and unwavering faith.
- Moses (Val Kilmer): Kilmer's commanding vocals lend a heroic depth to the anthem "When You Believe."
- Rameses (Ralph Fiennes): Fiennes' menacing performance captures Rameses' arrogance in "Playing with the Big Boys."
- Tzipporah (Salma Hayek): Hayek's soulful voice brings warmth to the tender ballad "Through Heaven's Eyes."
- Miriam (Sandra Bullock): Bullock's soaring vocals ignite the celebratory "The Plagues."

The Orchestral Tapestry: A Symphony of Ancient Egypt and Modern Broadway

Composer Stephen Schwartz masterfully weaves together traditional Egyptian music with elements of Broadway, creating a rich and evocative sonic landscape.
